The Interpretive Tensions of the Revelation

Heavenly realities

spiritual eternal above history above space and time

Earthly counterparts

physical events geographical locations historical time

Can we always identify these? Should we attempt to identify these?